Olos bergère

Designer: Mauro Lipparini

The Olos bergère armchair combined with the Olos footstool complements the Olos collection helping to make it both coordinated and harmonious. The new bergère design armchair offers considerable levels of relaxation, characterized by contours that indicate a lifestyle that is elegant, rigorous, serene and casual all at the same time, presenting a reinterpretation of mid-century modern design that reminds us of the authenticity of curved lamellar woodworking. Like a protective shell, the gentle smoothness of the curves of the supporting wooden frame combines with the sinuous roundness of the padding, making the generous level of comfort on offer evident at first sight, welcoming you enticingly with its essential forms.
